

Kraus of 28 West Seventy-sixth Street. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents. Justice Francis B. Delehanty of the Supreme Court, a life-long friend of the bride's family, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a wedding breakfast.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Walter Lewisohn. Walter Lewisohn acted as best man for Mr. von Schlegel. After their honeymoon trip the young couple will go to their place at Sands Point, L. I.

BENDHEIM—LOWENSTEIN.

The wedding of Miss Cora Mae Lowenstein, daughter of Morris Lowenstein of 260 West Seventy-second Street, to Julius Bendheim, son of Mrs. Henrietta Bendheim and the late Adolph Bendheim, took place at 1 o'clock yesterday, at Sherry's. The Rev. Dr. Maurice Harris performed the ceremony. Mrs. Henry Wineburgh, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Bendheim will spend the Summer at Deal Beach, N. J., and in the Fall will make their home in this city.

Elsie Ernst to Wed Dr. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Charles Ernst, Jr., of Pittsfield, Mass., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elsie Matilda Ernst, to Dr. Kenneth Johnson of New York City and Montclair, N. J. Dr. Johnson is engaged in research work in New York. No date has been set for the wedding.

$30,000,000 HEIRESS TO WED

Miss Catherine Barker, 19, Engaged to Harold H. Spaulding, Jr.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, June 3.—James B. Forgan, President of the First National Bank of this city, today announced the engagement of Miss Catherine Barker to Howard H. Spaulding, Jr. Miss Barker is the daughter of the late John H. Barker of Michigan City, Ind., and Mr. Forgan is her guardian. She is worth $30,000,000 in her own right, and is one of America's greatest heiresses.

Miss Barker, who is only 19 years old, is now attending the Finch School in New York, and after her graduation there this month will come to her Summer place at Harbor Point, Mich., where the wedding is to be celebrated on July 31.

Mr. Spaulding has been for some time attached to the Haskell & Barker Car Company as Assistant Secretary, and although his engagement to Miss Barker has been frequently reported, it was not confirmed until the formal announcement made today.

It is said that Miss Barker, during the last few years, since she came into so much wealth, has received thousands of letters from every part of the world proposing marriage. Most of them, her guardian says, have been kept from her.

THOMPSON BUCHANAN WEDS

Dramatist Marries Miss Katherine S. Winterbotham in St. Thomas's.

The wedding of Miss Katherine S. Winterbotham, daughter of Mrs. John R. Winterbotham, of 999 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, and Thompson Buchanan, playwright, was celebrated yesterday afternoon in the chantry at St. Thomas's Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the Church of the Ascension.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle, with a court train, and veil of tulle, caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Ernest Poole, Mrs. Ralph Poole, a cousin, and Miss Genevieve Mott. They were gowned in frocks of blue taffeta, with full short-length skirts trimmed with pink roses, and topped with large hats of blue tulle. They carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink roses.

The ceremony was followed by a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Ernest Poole, 130 East Sixty-seventh Street, where the bride has been staying for several months. Later Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan left on a motor trip. They will live in West Eighth Street on their return. Mr. Buchanan is the author of "A Woman's Way" and "Life."

FRED JACKSON TO MARRY.

Author of "A Full House" to Wed Miss Florence Howe, Movie Actress.

The wedding of Miss Florence Howe, daughter of John W. Howe, city editor of a New York newspaper, and Fred Jackson, author and playwright, whose farce, "A Full House," is running at the Longacre Theatre, is to take place on Sunday at the home of Alfred E. Aarons at Bayside, L. I. Supreme Court Justice Mitchell Erlanger is to perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a breakfast and reception.

Miss Howe is a member of the Vitagraph Company's stock company. Mr. Jackson, who is 28 years old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson of Pittsburgh.

PRIDGEON-CATE WEDDING.

Ex-Mayor of Detroit Marries Mrs. Blanche Pridgeon Cate.

Mrs. Blanche Pridgeon Cate, widow of Earl Hotes Cate, who was a classmate of President Wilson at college, was married Wednesday night in Grace Church to John Pridgeon, Jr., former Mayor of Detroit, Mich., and until recently President of the White Star Line of lake steamers. He is a distant relative of the late William P. Pridgeon, the bride's father, and first met his bride about a year ago through a family death notice, which led to an inquiry from Mr. Pridgeon.

The couple are staying at the Hotel Biltmore, and will leave soon on their honeymoon trip. On their return they will spend the Summer at Mr. Pridgeon's country home at South Kingham, Mass.

WED IN THE BRICK CHURCH.

William T. Carrington Marries Miss Margaret Huston, a Singer.

William Theodore Carrington of 540 Park Avenue, and Miss Margaret Huston of 11½ West Thirty-seventh Street, were married at noon yesterday in the Brick Church at Fifth Avenue and Thirty-seventh Street, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. William Piereson Merrill.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mrs. Robert Moore Huston of Toronto, Canada, wore a gray frock topped by a black hat trimmed with pink, and had one attendant, her sister, Miss Nan Huston, who was in a green taffeta frock with hat to match.

Mr. Carrington had John Grier as his best man. There were no ushers, as none except the immediate family attended the ceremony.

The bride is well known as a singer and is 36, while the bridegroom is a widower, aged 60. He is a retired business man and a member of the Metropolitan, Automobile and Church Clubs, and is a Columbia graduate, Class of 1877.

THEIR HONEYMOON ON YACHT.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor von Schlegel, Just Married, Are on a Cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor von Schlegel, whose marriage was celebrated on Wednesday, are spending their honeymoon cruising in their yacht Vamoose. Mrs. von Schlegel was Miss Viola Kraus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J.